

SHAKESPEARE:

WORDS WE OWE TO WILLIAM SHAKESPEARE

It is common knowledge that Shakespeare is one of the most well-known and celebrated writers to ever live. It is lesser known that he included many never before seen words in his plays. 2,200 to be exact. Some of these words have entered our everyday language. Let's take a look at some of the words that we owe to Shakespeare:

- Bedazzled- Taming of the Shrew Act 4 Scene 5
- Belongings- Measure for Measure Act 1 Scene 1
- Eyeball- The Tempest Act 1 Scene 2
- Fashionable- Troilus and Cressida Act 3 Scene 3
- Manager- A Midsummer Night's Dream Act 5 Scene 1
- Swagger- Henry V Act 2 Scene 4
- Uncomfortable- Romeo and Juliet Act 4 Scene 5
- Eventful- As You Like It Act 2 Scene 6
- Assassination- Macbeth Act 1 Scene 7
- Inaudible- All's Well That Ends Well Act 5 Scene 3